

It's True! We made the Washingtonian Magazine Hall of Fame! For the 22nd year in a row, the Washingtonian Magazine has once again recognized Scott Greenberg, David Wexler, Keith Eig and Benjamin Green at GWE and Mitch Freedman at FRM as Top Insurance Advisors in Washington, DC – and we could not have done it without you! So, on behalf of all of us at Greenberg, Wexler & Eig and Freedman Risk Management, thank you for your continued support and trust. And we are looking to seeing the next generation of advisors at both firms recognized in the Washingtonian in the future!
